Reflections

The Daily Office

Many of us haven't cracked open a Bible in a while. Some of us have tried to achieve a goal of starting at the beginning and reading all the way through to the end. Very few have succeeded in that goal. Yet most of us want to read the Bible. We want to read it, know it, understand it, but we're not sure how.

The Daily Office can help us do just that. As I said in our Christian Formation time this past Sunday, it is the expectation of the Church that all of our members are engaging in praying the Daily Office. Morning Prayer, Rite II, begins on page 75 of The Book of Common Prayer. Noonday Prayer begins on page 103. Evening Prayer, Rite II, begins on page 115. Compline, or Night Prayer, begins on page 127. The structure of following the daily prayers, especially Morning and Evening Prayer, can help us engage Scripture in small doses over a two year period and help us to "read, mark, learn, and inwardly digest" them. The two-year Daily Office Lectionary begins at page 933 of the BCP and continues until page 1001. This coming Sunday we will begin the week of Proper 8, Year Two. You will find the readings for the Daily Office for this Sunday on page 973 of the BCP. When you get there you will see the readings listed as follows:

Sunday 118 v 145
 Num. 21:4-9, 21-35 Acts 17:12-23 Luke 13:10-17

The Psalm appointed for Morning Prayer is 118. The Psalm appointed for Evening Prayer (after the funny looking symbol) is 145.

Typically there are two readings at Morning Prayer. In Year One they will be the Old Testament reading and the Epistle. In Year Two they will be the Old Testament reading and the Gospel. So, for this Sunday, in the morning you would read from Numbers and Luke. In the evening you would read from Acts and then another short reading, perhaps from the Church Fathers, etc.

As you read the Scriptures, do so slowly, "chewing on" each word. When you finish the reading stop and reflect on what you've read. What spoke to you? What did you learn about God? What did you learn about our relationship with God? Where does this intersect with what is going on in your life right now? How does the passage invite/challenge you to take action? Hopefully this little reflection will help you discover a more meaningful engagement with the Scriptures. And remember, I'll be praying for you. I hope you'll pray for me, too! Fr. Charles

As part of our Invite-Welcome-Connect ministry, this project will focus on our ministry of hospitality - ensuring we easily identifiable and welcoming to newcomers to our parish. You should have received a letter in the mail this from Beth Robinson, Senior Warden, which outlines this initiative. We are asking each family member for a modest donation of $5.00 for the purchase of a high quality name-tag with a magnetic back. Name-tags will be ordered the week of July 9th. If you did not receive a letter, additional copies are available in the narthex. If you have any questions, please talk to a member of Vestry. Thank you in advance for your support.

Lord God Almighty, in whose Name the founders of this country won liberty for themselves and for us, and lit the torch of freedom for nations then unborn: Grant that we and all the people of this land may have grace to maintain our liberties in righteousness and peace; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God for ever and ever. Amen.
