REFLECTIONS

Dear Sisters and Brothers in Christ:

In this time of stress and fear I have found that it is most important for me to take time for thorough self-examination. Here is a form that I have found helpful for decades. May it help in this time of sheltering in place. WWIII

Have I believed in God: in Father, Son and Holy Spirit?

Have I trusted in God and in God's promises?

Have I been thankful for Gods blessings?

Have I tried to serve God and to keep God's commandments?

Have I worked for God, the Church, and their honor and glory?

Have I said my morning and evening prayers faithfully?

Have I gone regularly to Church? To Holy Communion?

Have I prepared carefully for Holy Com-munion?

Have I stayed away from the Holy Eucharist on Sundays or Holy Days except through grave cause?

Have I done unnecessary work on Sunday? Have I said Grace' at meals?

Have I been irreverent in Church, or elsewhere?

Have I tried to make my home happy and holy, and to be faithful in all my family relations?

Have I always tried to do unto others as I would have them do unto me?

Have I been proud, vain, envious, covetous, selfish, discontented?

Have I humbly received counsel and reproof, and been willing to acknowledge my faults?

Have I been angry? Struck anyone? Blasphemed? Used in vain God's Name, or the Holy Name of Jesus?

Have I been cross, disagreeable, fault-finding, revengeful?

Have I borne malice or hatred in my heart? Rejoiced at the misfortunes of others?

Have I failed to be kind, patient, forgiving?

Have I cheated, gambled, wasted money, lied?

Have I been impure in thought, word, or deed?

Have I acted dishonorably in any way?

Am I truly sorry for my sins, and do I truly desire to do better ?
