Dear Sisters and Brothers in Christ:

We all have a duty as Disciples of Christ to attend to our ongoing Christian formation. Some of us have the honor and responsibility of guiding others in the pilgrimage of discipleship. This duty knows no age, condition of life or level of responsibility in the life of the Church. The very dynamism of our Baptism's calls every one of us to pursue God's Mission in a broken world. To have something to contribute to the needs and issues of our present society we must train ourselves to grow day by day toward the fullness of mature humanity in Christ Jesus or Lord.

If our goal, as it should be, is to convey the love of Christ and the Body of Christ's natural tenderness for all people we must remember that we maybe and often are the only means of contact which another creature of God's own making may have of that Love. Our human, spiritual and intellectual maturity in the art of loving kindness is key to the evangelization of our own day and culture. More than the accumulation of knowledge, our formation in the Christian life involves allowing our persons to be shaped by the gifts of grace which God sends our way. It also involves the cultivation of patterns which compel us to grow in sensitivity to others. Learning to listen, to create an atmosphere of welcome and a warm dialogue of invitation into a mutual place of exploration as it attends to the mysteries of God is never an easy task. On the other hand, it must be part and parcel of how we convey the Church's solicitude and compassion.

The goal of the Church in every generation is to encourage and enable her Children to be authentic and transparent. Ultimately ours is a call to holiness. The objective of our formation needs to bear in mind the world's need to know the authentic spirit of holiness through the incarnate pastoral activity of all members of the Church. Formation founded in Christ Jesus invites us to become conscious of our common responsibility to continuing conversion. It should be the goal of all to be conformed to our Lord's likeness in all things - especially in meekness, poverty of spirit and passion for justice. By contemplation and imitation of the mercy and compassion of the Father through the face of Jesus in the power of the Holy Spirit, we can convey fortitude and true joy. In this way we can bring to life compassion for the afflicted, patience during chaos, and wisdom embedded in Love.

As we begin our return to more in person events at St. Paul's, consider how you can support the many opportunities to enter a path of formation: Children's Formation and Chapel on the First Sunday of each month; the continuing cycle of daily offices and the weekday Masses; Meditation class on Wednesday's and Bible Study on Thursday's; and Inquirers Class on Sunday's just to name a few. During Lent we have the added prospect of the Stations of the Cross on Fridays. Join me in intentional formation -

The Very Revd. Dr. Wm Willoughby III, OStJ Rector & Dean of Savannah

Wednesdays –

Learning to Meditate During Lent

Everyone is invited Wednesday evenings during Lent from 7-8 pm to learn and practice Christian meditation in the second floor of the Parish Hall (Room 203).

We will use Laurence Freeman's book, Sensing God: Learning to Meditate During Lent, as our guide for exploring the ancient practice of Christian meditation. Learn what sets this form of meditation apart from mindfulness and directly experience the benefits and fruits of a daily and weekly practice. If you'd like to order Freeman's book, it is available here from Christianbook.com or through Amazon/Kindle. If there are any questions, or you need special accommodations, please contact Dr. Simona Perry at (240) 599 - 6655 or communitypower.slp@gmail.com

Sunday: Deeping Your Faith 11:30am

Fr. Willoughby will hold an class on deepening your spiritual practices for all parishioners and for those interested in joining the Episcopal church. The book will be In Your Holy Spirit by Michelle Heyne and can be ordered from Amazon using this link: <https://tinyurl.com/4jh2r6mn>. NO CLASS TODAY, Sunday March 13th (read the first two chapters in the book). Class will meet in the Reed Room next Sunday. All are invited to attend.
