Reflections

Dear Sisters and Brothers in Christ:

What a marvelous place St. Paul's is! Time and again our Patronal Feast and the Annual Parish Meeting come to this parish and each time I have been granted a new look at the gift, which is ours in this Community. Incarnate, in each of you is the gifts which the Holy Spirit has endowed us. All of which confess in their way the Holy Name we are privileged to convey. The people and culture of this parish is rich and manifold. Many over the years have visited St. Paul's and remarked on the beauty and obvious care which has been employed in making the place where we gather to worship special and conducive to prayer. Few parishes offer the rich schedule of Eucharistic Worship and opportunities for Holy Communion on Sunday, much less, Monday through Friday. This year's participation in the daily offering of Morning Prayer has not only increased but we are sharing it live and on line, while steeping the clericus of Savannah in its ancient rhythms. Each year we mark the passing of a long time and devoted parishioners, as well as not so long term but equally devoted parishioners. We also welcome new members into the Parish and into the Body of Christ for the building up of our mutual work for the Kingdom God. I want to thank all of those who made everything work! Many hands, hearts and minds are needed to produce the catechetical, pastoral, liturgical and decorative effects employed in our common work. We are blessed with both creative and willing people who insure a glorious celebration of the full liturgical year and address the many challenges and opportunities the Lord grants us. I am blessed to be your parish priest and I want you to know that it is my joy to serve St. Paul's.

Each year it is my Hope that together we will grow into a deeper apprehension of the love which is ours in Christ Jesus and that we will learn new ways to encourage each other in the ways of God's Kingdom. As we move into this new year of 2019 let us strive to make our actions conform to our professed beliefs and let us dig deeper into the sustenance of the Gospel. Only in so doing can we become mature in the faith and better servants of God's purpose rather than purveyors of our own devices and desires.

As we learn to embrace our identity as a people called to live in the ways of love, acceptance and forgiveness we become better equipped to do the work we have been given to do - which is to bring the knowledge of God's love for the world to those most in need of its sustaining power. In so doing we become aware of the enormous possibilities that each of us can cause in the lives of others when we rely on the hope of God's grace. Let us commit the coming year to growing in the awareness of grace and to serving those sent our way – all of whom are children of God, with all the dignity that marvelous title entails

Parish News and Events

Music for this Sunday, January 27th

Hymns: 616, 581, Doxology, 321, 530

Anthem: Blow Ye The Trumpet (Clark)

Blow ye the trumpet, blow! The gladly solemn sound
Let all the nations know,
To earth's remotest bound:
The year of jubilee is come! The year of jubilee is come!
Return, ye ransomed sinners, home.
Extol the Lamb of God, The sin atoning Lamb;
Redemption by His blood
Throughout the lands proclaim:
The Gospel trumpet hear,
The news of heavenly grace;
And saved from earth, appear
Before your Savior's face.
