REFLECTIONS

Dear Sisters and Brothers in Christ:

As we turn our thoughts to the company of Saints and our support of the ministry and mission of St. Paul's I offer these few thoughts of encouragement. For many in the Parish, Stewardship is a way to express our support of the Church, which is the company of Saints and its work. It is that time of the year when we are challenged to consider the life work and witness of St. Paul's - what will we do to advance the Gospel in this glorious place called Savannah and how will we marshal our resources as that company of Saints for the spread of God's Kingdom. We might also ask what special ministry God expects of me in the coming year and how can I enable my heart to hear the voice of my Lord and my God in this matter. Or put another way how can I be an agent of God's Kingdom? Furthermore, what gifts do we all take advantage of in this Parish which so many other people could and would benefit from if we were more intentional about sharing the good news, we experience through St. Paul's.

Only when we take these and similar kinds of questions to prayer can we expect to move from seeking to do our own will to the will of God, which of course is our real purpose for being Saints of God in community as a Parish. This is a truth which can easily get lost in the pursuit of everyday life. Ultimately Stewardship is not a constituent of our belief system or a devotional practice, but an ethos, a way of living in the world. Given this fact the decision we make about the Stewardship of the gifts which are ours to use are not actually decisions we make about the support of the Parish but decisions we make concerning ourselves and the life we are called to live.

This means that the Stewardship Program is ultimately an opportunity to do spiritual work which focuses on needs, rather than wants. Our need to recognize nothing belongs to us - not our material goods, not our money, not our time, not even our talents. Our need to be released from the things which enslave us, whether they be desire for power, wealth, or pleasure. Our need to recognize that our worth and place in God's creation is to be found in the pursuit of love for God and neighbor. Unfortunately, we often direct our God given resources, which are provided to nurture and encourage life, on vain and empty pursuits that drain us of life. The Stewardship ethos, which is part and parcel of the Christian vision for life, moves us from concern about what we don't have to thanksgiving for what we do have. In other words, it allows us to move from a vision of scarcity to one of abundance. Are there times it seems like you have forgotten how to live? The remedy is to be found in the grammar of gratitude - Praise God, from whom all blessing flow; praise God all creatures here below; praise God above ye heavenly hosts: praise Father, Son and Holy Ghost.

As members of the Church Militant and part of the company of Saints celebrating this great feast of All Saints, let us ask for the prayers and aid of the Church Triumphant that like them we may look deeper into the vision of abundance which our Lord offers. That we may in our day faithfully proclaim and witness to the abundant gifts with which each child of God, each saint, has been blessed. Thus creating a refuge from which we can encourage and enable each other to convey the love of Christ to all sorts and conditions of men, women and children, inviting those in all kinds of need to share in the abundant life that is grounded not in possessions but in gratitude.

Anthem: Lead, Kindly Light

(Music: Paul Paluszak, Text: John Henry Newman)

Lead, Kindly Light, amidst th'encircling gloom, Lead Thou me on! The night is dark, and I am far from home, Lead Thou me on! Keep Thou my feet; I do not ask to see The distant scene; one step enough for me. I was not ever thus, nor prayed that Thou Shouldst lead me on; I loved to choose and see my path; but now Lead Thou me on! I loved the garish day, and, spite of fears, Pride ruled my will. Remember not past years! So long Thy power hath blest me, sure it still Will lead me on. O'er moor and fen, o'er crag and torrent, till The night is gone, And with the morn those angel faces smile, Which I have loved long since, and lost awhile! Lead Thou me on, To my God.
